10 a.m.: Tasting Introduction class in the Saint-Emilion wine house.

A wine expert will introduce you the art of wine-tasting for one hour: sensory analysis (description of visual and olfactory sensations) and tasting of two local wines.

11.30 a.m.: Visit and "Casse-Croûte vigneron" in a wine estate

Departure for a family estate of Saint-Emilion. The winemaker will welcome you and make you visit his exploitation: vines, cellar, winery. He also allows you to discover the different steps of the Saint-Emilion wine making. Then, share a friendly "Casse-Croûte" lunch with him, including 3 wines of the estate.

3.30 p.m.: Tour in the Saint-Emilion vineyards

For a one hour vineyard tour, your guide will make you discover the landscapes listed as World Heritage by UNESCO. You will enjoy the outstandingly vine-covered Saint-Emilion countryside.

4 p.m.: Saint-Emilion city Visit

Follow your guide through several centuries of history! From the village's foundation in the 8th century to the French Revolution in 1789 through the period of English domination: discover the rich past of Saint-Emilion through its main monuments.

Traditional streets, cloisters, city gate, fortifications and underground monuments have so much to tell you. Without forgetting a viewpoint to admire the beautiful sleeping city.
